Pitney Bowes Announces Full Year And Fourth Quarter 2018 Financial Results

STAMFORD, Conn, February 5, 2019...Pitney Bowes Inc. (NYSE: PBI), a global technology company that provides commerce solutions in the areas of ecommerce, shipping, mailing, and data, today announced its financial results for the full year and fourth quarter 2018.

"The fourth quarter and 2018 were important moments in the transformation of our company," said Marc B. Lautenbach, President and CEO, Pitney Bowes. "Revenue grew in 2018, marking the second year of consecutive growth and making the last two years the best revenue growth performance in a decade."

Full Year 2018:

- Revenue of $3.5 billion, an increase over prior year of 13 percent as reported and 2 percent on a proforma basis
- GAAP EPS of $1.19; Adjusted EPS of $1.16
- GAAP cash from operations of $392 million; free cash flow of $318 million
- Total debt decreased by $565 million versus prior year

Fourth Quarter 2018:

- Revenue of $947 million, an increase over prior year of 3 percent as reported
- GAAP EPS of $0.24; Adjusted EPS of $0.38
- GAAP cash from operations of $103 million; free cash flow of $153 million

Recent Announcements:

- On January 31, 2019, the Company announced that it signed a definitive agreement to sell its SMB direct operations in six smaller European countries to BAVARIA Industries Group AG.
- On February 4, 2019, the Board of Directors authorized an incremental $100 million share repurchase and revised the quarterly dividend to $0.05 on the Company's common share.

Share Repurchase and Dividend

The Board of Directors authorized an incremental $100 million share repurchase, which brings the total authorization to $121 million, and declared a quarterly cash dividend of $0.05 per common share. The amount of dividend reflects a reduction from the previous quarter's dividend of $0.1875 per share. The dividend will be payable on March 11, 2019 to stockholders of record on February 15, 2019. In addition, a quarterly cash dividend of $0.53 per share of the Company's $2.12 convertible preference stock will be payable on April 1, 2019 to stockholders of record on March 15, 2019, and a quarterly cash dividend of $0.50 per share on the Company's 4 percent convertible cumulative preferred stock will be payable on May 1, 2019 to stockholders of record on April 15, 2019.

"Six years ago, Pitney Bowes was in markets that were declining and our revenue was declining," said Lautenbach. "Today, roughly half of Pitney Bowes revenue is coming from growth markets. Importantly, Pitney Bowes is winning in those markets and growing revenue as evidenced by the strong growth in our Global Ecommerce segment. Consequently, there are opportunities available for Pitney Bowes to create value for our shareholders and continue to grow. Therefore, it is appropriate for the Company's capital allocation to evolve. Our new capital allocation policy provides sufficient flexibility for Pitney Bowes to take advantage of these opportunities and at the same time still return capital to our shareholders. I am confident our capital allocation will unlock value for our shareholders."

Full Year 2018 Results

Revenue totaled $3.5 billion, an increase over prior year of 13 percent as reported and 12 percent at constant currency. On a proforma basis, revenue increased over prior year by 2 percent as reported and 1 percent at constant currency.

GAAP earnings per diluted share (GAAP EPS) were $1.19. Adjusted earnings per diluted share (Adjusted EPS) were $1.16.

GAAP cash from operations was $392 million and free cash flow was $318 million. During the year, the Company used cash to reduce debt by $565 million, return $140 million in dividends to shareholders and to pay $53 million for restructuring payments.

Fourth Quarter 2018 Results

Revenue totaled $947 million, which was an increase over prior year of 3 percent as reported and 4 percent at constant currency.

Commerce Services revenue grew 12 percent. Small and Medium Business (SMB) Solutions revenue declined 7 percent as reported and 6 percent at constant currency. Software Solutions revenue increased 17 percent as reported and 19 percent at constant currency.

GAAP EPS was $0.24. Adjusted EPS was $0.38.

GAAP cash from operations during the quarter was $103 million and free cash flow was $153 million. Compared to the prior year, free cash flow increased by $19 million largely due to the timing of accounts payable and higher net income. This was partly offset by other working capital items. During the quarter, the Company used cash to return $35 million in dividends to shareholders and to pay $14 million for restructuring payments.

Global Ecommerce

Revenue increased from prior year driven by growth in domestic parcel, fulfillment and shipping solutions volumes partially offset by lower cross border volumes. This is the first quarter with Newgistics reporting in both periods. Newgistics revenue grew 23 percent over prior year.

The EBIT loss was driven primarily by investments in market growth opportunities and operational excellence initiatives, higher transportation and labor costs as well as the amortization of acquisition-related intangible assets.

Presort Services

Revenue growth was driven by higher volumes of First Class mail, Standard Class mail and Bound and Packet mail processed. EBIT and EBITDA margins declined from prior year primarily due to higher costs related to the launch of a marketing mail pilot program, as well as higher labor and transportation costs and lower revenue per piece.

North America Mailing

The year-over-year decline in recurring revenue streams continues to stabilize and is in-line with the average of the last two quarters. Recurring revenue streams declined largely around rentals, supplies and support services, which was partially offset by growth in financing and business services. Revenue declined in equipment sales largely due to a decline in top of the line products. EBIT and EBITDA margins were lower than prior year due to the decline in revenue partly offset by lower expenses.

International Mailing

Equipment sales and recurring revenue streams both contributed to the revenue decline. The equipment sales decline was driven by weakness in the UK and France, partly offset by growth in Japan. EBIT and EBITDA margins increased versus prior year primarily driven by lower expenses.

Revenue		$97	$83	17%	19%
EBITDA		$25	$11	121%
EBIT		$23	$9	155%

Software Solutions

Revenue increased from prior year driven by higher license revenue, primarily in Data and Location Intelligence, strong growth in SaaS revenues, as well as from the implementation of the new revenue recognition standard (ASC 606). Revenue also benefited from growth in smaller deals. EBIT and EBITDA margins increased from prior year largely driven by operating leverage on the higher revenue.

2019 Guidance

The Company expects for the full year 2019:

- Revenue, on a constant currency (CC) basis, to be in the range of 1 percent to 4 percent growth, when compared to 2018.
- Adjusted EPS from continuing operations to be in the range of $1.05 to $1.20.
- Free cash flow to be in the range of $225 million to $275 million. Free cash flow will be impacted by third party leasing initiatives.

The Company's 2019 guidance has been adjusted for the financial results related to the sale of SMB direct operations in six smaller European countries as a result of the recently signed definitive agreement. The year-to-year revenue comparison will be adversely impacted by approximately $40 million, or 1 percent, as a result of this sale. The Company's 2019 guidance also considers the incremental expense associated with the current tariff level of 10 percent with China.

In aggregate, these items are expected to adversely impact EPS by approximately $0.04 to $0.05. Additionally, if the current tariff level with China increases to 25 percent, the Company has estimated that this would have an additional adverse impact of approximately $0.04 to $0.06 on EPS results.

The Company's 2019 guidance reflects the new lease accounting standard (ASC 842), which is not expected to have a material impact on overall 2019 results. Prior years will be recast in the first guarter to conform to the new standard.

This guidance discusses future results, which are inherently subject to unforeseen risks and developments. As such, discussions about the business outlook should be read in the context of an uncertain future, as well as the risk factors identified in the safe harbor language at the end of this release and as more fully outlined in the Company's 2017 Form 10-K Annual Report and other reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. This guidance excludes any unusual items that may occur or additional portfolio or restructuring actions, not specifically identified, as the Company implements plans to further streamline its operations and reduce costs. Revenue guidance is provided on a constant currency basis. The Company cannot reasonably predict the impact that future changes in currency exchange rates will have on revenue and net income. Additionally, the Company cannot provide GAAP EPS and GAAP cash from operations guidance due to the uncertainty of future potential restructurings, goodwill and asset write-downs, unusual tax settlements or payments, special contributions to its pension funds, acquisitions, divestitures and other potential adjustments, which could, individually or in the aggregate, have a material impact on the Company's performance. The Company's guidance is based on an assumption that the global economy and foreign exchange markets in 2019 will not change significantly. The Company's guidance also includes changes in accounting standards implemented at the beginning of the year.

Use of Non-GAAP Measures

The Company's financial results are reported in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP); however, in its disclosures the Company uses certain non-GAAP measures, such as adjusted earnings before interest and taxes (EBIT), adjusted earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA), adjusted earnings per share (EPS), revenue growth on a constant currency basis and free cash flow.

The Company reports measures such as adjusted EBIT, adjusted EPS and adjusted net income to exclude the impact of special items like restructuring charges, tax adjustments, goodwill and asset write-downs, and costs related to dispositions and acquisitions. While these are actual Company expenses, they can mask underlying trends associated with its business. Such items are often inconsistent in amount and frequency and as such, the adjustments allow an investor greater insight into the current underlying operating trends of the business.

In addition, revenue growth is presented on a constant currency basis to exclude the impact of changes in foreign currency exchange rates since the prior period under comparison. Constant currency measures are intended to help investors better understand the underlying operational performance of the business excluding the impacts of shifts in currency exchange rates over the period. Constant currency is calculated by converting our current quarter reported results using the prior year's exchange rate for the comparable quarter. This comparison allows an investor insight into the underlying revenue performance of the business and true operational performance from a comparable basis to prior period. A reconciliation of reported revenue to constant currency revenue can be found in the Company's attached financial schedules.

The Company reports free cash flow in order to provide investors insight into the amount of cash that management could have available for other discretionary uses. Free cash flow adjusts GAAP cash from operations for capital expenditures, restructuring payments, unusual tax settlements, special contributions to the Company's pension fund and cash used for other special items. A reconciliation of GAAP cash from operations to free cash flow can be found in the Company's attached financial schedules.

Segment EBIT is the primary measure of profitability and operational performance at the segment level. Segment EBIT is determined by deducting from segment revenue the related costs and expenses attributable to the segment. Segment EBIT excludes interest, taxes, general corporate expenses not allocated to a particular business segment, restructuring charges and goodwill and asset impairments, which are recognized on a consolidated basis. The Company has also included segment EBITDA as a useful measure for profitability and operational performance, and an additional way to look at the economics of the segments, especially in light of some of the Company's more recent, larger acquisitions. Segment EBITDA further excludes depreciation and amortization expense for the segment. A reconciliation of segment EBIT and EBITDA to net income can be found in the attached financial schedules.

Pitney Bowes has provided a quantitative reconciliation to GAAP in supplemental schedules. This information can be found at the Company's web site www.pb.com/investorrelations
