ITEM 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

(e) On February 11, 2013, the Board approved amendments to the Senior Executive Severance Policy (SESP) to reduce the separation benefits payable after a termination from employment on account of a change of control for named executive officers and executive officers from three to two years, and for senior executives from two to 1.5 years. Health and welfare benefits for executives and dependents after a termination on account of a change of control were also reduced as this benefit is coterminous with the severance period.

Each of Pitney Bowes' named executive officers participates in the SESP.
